SPECIAL STATION ACHIEVEMENT AWARD—Joint Award

- WNTA for "Open End"
For conceiving and developing a new approach to television programming and for offering an entertaining, thought-provoking series of uninhibited discussion programs on an adult level.
- WCBS-TV for "Chaucer, Chopin and the People's Choice"
For devoting its time, energy and creativity on a continuing basis to the presentation of a great number of consistently high quality programs in the public interest — designed to inform, enrich and entertain the vast viewing public of the New York area. For making available its facilities and skills to the New York City Board of Education and to the Metropolitan Educational Television Association for the implementation of their educational broadcasting.
